

ABOUT US The Crossdresser's Social Club was created to provide a single site where we can meet and share our lives and experiences. Our sexual natures, desires and passions are an important part of our total beings therefore free and open discussions and all media are welcomed and encouraged here. The Crossdresser's Social Club is a community where you have your very own home page with a place for your sexy crossdressing pictures and movies. There's even a very simple blog of your own too. Make friends with others, chat online, find others in your area, share your pictures and movies. Discuss where you shop for panties or what you like to do with them. Discuss you're first time going out or how scared you are but really want to try it. You'll make really good friends here
